

Leaders Map Strategy for Fall Campaign of Community Chest

Those who know best why Community Chest will be asking a "million dollars more" when it holds its annual campaign, met for the first time this week at the Palms Restaurant.

Volunteer board members from Chest agencies attending the luncheon were: Melvin Sparks, Torrance Veterans' Center; Clyde Lheureux, President Harbor area Salvation Army

Corps; Mrs. W. R. La Porte, Palos Verdes city chairman and president of Homer Toberman Settlement House - volunteer board; Mrs. Louaine Harper, President of Harbor YWCA; Mrs. Virginia Rugg, chairman for Torrance YWCA; Mrs. Kenneth Lapiar, Chairman for Wilmington YWCA; Miss Pauline Greer, finance secretary, Torrance YWCA and Mrs. Winnie Mae Nott who acted for her husband as president of Mahar House of the Wilmington CYO

According to J. A. Robinson, president of the Harbor Area Welfare Federation Board and host for the luncheon, volunteer board representative for the Agencies will be called upon to play a more significant part in the 1958 campaign than ever before. Their efforts will be especially important in recruiting and educating volunteers.
